RESPONSIVE READING

Isaiah 53:4-12 (NIV)

LEADER: Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering, yet we considered him punished by God, stricken by him, and afflicted.

RESPONSE: But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed.

LEADER: We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to our own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

RESPONSE: He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; he is led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

LEADER: By oppression and judgement he was taken away. Yet who of his generation protested? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was punished.

RESPONSE: He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, though he had done no violence, nor was any deceit in his mouth.

LEADER: Yet it was the Lord's will to crush him and cause him to suffer, and though the Lord makes his life an offering for sin, he will see his offspring and prolong his days, and the will of the Lord will prosper in his hand.

RESPONSE: After he has suffered, and he will see the light of life and be satisfied; by his knowledge my righteous servant will justify many, and he will bear their iniquities.

ALL: Therefore I will give him a portion among the great, and he will divide the spoils with the strong, because he poured out his life unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors. For he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.
